40364

INFORMATION REPORT  PREPARED AND DISSEMINATED BY  CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  India  UBJECT  Plans for Industrial Progress  ACCE ACQUIRED (By source)  APP 55  This is UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  This is unterial contains information affecting of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelate of which in any manner to an uncuthorized point is prohibited by law.  25X1A2  REPORT NO  DATE DISTRIBUTED  NO. OF PAGES  NO.	SE	EE BOTTOM OF PAGE FOR ADDITIONAL SPEC	IAL CONTROLS, IF ANY
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  India  DEFINITION  Plans for Industrial Progress  Plans for Industrial Progress  No. of Pages  No.	0 - 21 - 12 - 12 - 12 - 12 - 12 - 12 - 1		This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the
Plans for Industrial Progress  Plans for Industrial Progress  Plans for Industrial Progress  Apr 25 MAC CONTINUE TO PROGRAMICS (Date or decise, on or heteroca which, cross or confiness described in report edited)  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE reported that the government of the production of aircraft engines, heavy industries.  The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lioyds, is exercting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of I pipes and VI pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 in university of the scheme will enable the plant has a capacity of 10 imports of these products.  The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this council was one of the recommendations of the synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end-* If ASI-BAIE IMPORTANCE TO THE STATES IN THE INTERNATION IN THE STATES IN THE INTERNATI	PREPARED AND DISSEMINATED BY		Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation
Plans for Industrial Progress.  Plans for Industrial Progress.  No. of Process 1  Plans for Industrial Progress.  No. of Process 1  Preference of the Company of the Parliament, the President of India articlipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of listing the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jesshedpur a mill for the memuracture of G I pipes and WI pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will emable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Parlamaceutical Enquiry Committee.  "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the counciry and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end-It Alf-BAIE MRO-INSTANCE.	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Plans for Industrial Progress    DATE DESTRUCTOR   DATE OF INCOMPATION (Date or dates, on or between which, or reacting a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be leid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of liebment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy industries.    "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1957. An extension of the schee will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.    "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Plantaceutical Enguiry Committee."    "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project    "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project    "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project    "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project   "The synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project   "The synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project   "The synthet	COUNTRY
Plans for Industrial Progress.    Corpose   1	SUBJECT
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of list reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Shewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and treports from firms of international repute."  -end- W ALI-SAIE INFO-IRA-BAIE ANY 1.1 1968  25X1A93			98 Oh
APT 55  INIS IS UNEVALIATED INFORMATION  The acquirect that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government with the greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of & thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1977, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the menufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee."  -end- 1871 ALI-SAIE INTO-INTO-INTO-INTO-INTO-INTO-INTO-INTO-	TTOUS IC	or industrial Progress	ind. of Endes.
DATE OF INFORMATION (Date or dates, on or between which weeks or conditions described in report existed)  1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Feer Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of sirrcart engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G i pipes and W i pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annua and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1977, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- intra all-sale lafe-like-Ball and the synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."
DURCE  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  25X1X  25X1X  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE COMPANY A COMPANY IN THIS SECOND THE SETABLE PLANT THE SECOND IN THE SETABLE PLANT THE SECOND IN THE SETABLE PLANT THE COMPANY AND THE SECOND IN THE SETABLE PLANT THE PLANT AS CAPACITY OF 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the menufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project  -end- INFO-INF-BASE ANY  INFO-INF-BASE ANY I	PLACE ACQUIRED (By source)
DATE OF INCOMENTION (Date of dates, on or between which, events or consilient described in report existed)  1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee."  -end-ive Alf-Sale Nafe-Vis-Bale And Vis-Sale Nafe-Vis-Sale Naf
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finelize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedgur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaccuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Farmaccutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project  -end- with Alf-Bale Hafe-Ha-Bale and interest of the production of international repute."  -end- with Alf-Bale Hafe-Ha-Bale and interest of the production of international repute."  -end- with Alf-Bale Hafe-Ha-Bale and interest of the plant in the country and has decided to obtain project  -end- with Alf-Bale Hafe-Ha-Bale and interest of the production of the plant in the country and has decided to obtain project	DATE ACQUIRED (By source)	DATE OF INFORMATION (Date or dates, on or between which,	00/0-
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jemshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Fharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- Wit all-Ball Ball-Wall Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball	Apr 55	I
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jemshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Fharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- Wit all-Ball Ball-Wall Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball Ball		THIS IS LINEVALUATED INFOR	MATION
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- iff ASI-BAE INFO-IR-BAE AND IN	SOURCE
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- iff ASI-BAE INFO-IR-BAE AND IN
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- iff ASI-BAE INFO-IR-BAE AND IN
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- iff ASI-BAE INFO-IR-BAE AND IN	A
1. "Addressing a joint session of the Parliament, the President of India anticipated that greater emphasis would be laid on the establishment of the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is errecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the menufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- iff ASI-BAE INFO-IR-BAE AND IN			25X1X6
the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- international repute."  25X1A9a  25X1A9a  25X1A9a  25X1A9a
the capital goods industry in the Second Five Year Plan (1956-61). It is reported that the government will soon finalize plans for the establishment of plants for the production of aircraft engines, heavy electrical equipment and machinery required by the textile and cement industries.  2. "The Indian Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Iron & Steel Company and Stewarts and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur a mill for the manufacture of G I pipes and W I pipes in the common sizes required in India. The plant has a capacity of 80 thousand tons per annum and will commence production at the end of 1955. An extension of the scheme will enable the plant also to produce tubes. When the entire plant goes into production in 1957, India will become self-sufficient in pipes and tubes. At present, India depends entirely on imports of these products.  3. "The government of India has set up a Development Council for the scheduled industries engaged in the manufacture and production of pharmaceuticals and drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- international repute."  25X1A9a  25X1A9a  25X1A9a  25X1A9a	į drugs. The setting up of this Council was one of the recommendations of the Pharmaceutical Enquiry Committee.  4. "The government of India has agreed in principle to the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- intr act-sale large-life data interest of the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- intr act-sale large-life data interest of the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- intr act-sale large-life data interest of the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- intr act-sale large-life data interest of the setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports a setting up of a synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports oil plant in the c	industries  2. "The Indi Stewarts of G I pi plant has duction a plant als in 1957, sent, Indi	an Tube Company, sponsored by Tata Ir and Lloyds, is erecting in Jamshedpur pes and W I pipes in the common sizes a capacity of 80 thousand tons per a t the end of 1955. An extension of to to produce tubes. When the entire India will become self-sufficient in its depends entirely on imports of the	on & Steel Company and a mill for the manufacture required in India. The nnum and will commence pro- he scheme will enable the plant goes into production pipes and tubes. At pre- se products.
synthetic oil plant in the country and has decided to obtain project reports from firms of international repute."  -end- 1701 ACI-SAIE INFO-IFA-BAIE AMERICANIS INTEREST OF CALL INFO-IFA-BAIE AMERICANIS INFO-IFA-BAIE	drugs. The the Pharms	ne setting up of this Council was one accutical Enquiry Committee.	of the recommendations of nation by MAY 1, 1 1958	synthetic reports fr	com firms of international repute."	elded to obtain project
nation by MAY 1, 1 1958	wife is they	Programmed With AC	1-BATE INFO-TER-DATE ANEA COSTS nation by MAY 1, 1 1958	30-49.3		35 interest of the semi-nation by MAY 1, 1 1958		25X1A9a (a	IN IS SUFFICIONS FOR WALL
		yr r	1921
DISTRIBUTION			E / AL TOMOSIAS II
DISTRIBUTION
		DISTRIBUTION

NO DISSEM ABROAD

LIMITED: Dissemination limited to full-time employees in CIA-RUP and FRI; and within Scientific and intelligence components, other offices properties of the consultants, external projects or reserve personnel on short terms (excepting individuals who are normally full-time employees of CIA, Arc. Defense) uples the permission of the originating office has been obtained through the Assistant Director for Collection and Dissemination, CIA.